Praying for ears like Samuel

1. Praying for a willingness to hear God, not knowing what God will ask of us.
 - “Father, give us ears to be attentive when you call us by name. May we be prepared to answer Speak, for Your servant hears.” I Samuel 3:10
2. Praying for a willingness to hear God and obey when asked to deliver a hard message.
 - “Lord, many times You have asked Your children to deliver Your truth even when the message is difficult. Give us strength to follow in obedience when You ask us to bring the truth of Your Word to our fellow believers and unbelievers.” I Samuel 8:6-10
3. Praying for a willingness to hear God when asked to take action.
 - “God, You continue to use Your servants to act in accordance to Your will and to build Your kingdom. Give us Your grace and the courage to take action when You call us to do so.” I Samuel 9:15-17
4. Praying for a willingness to hear God and obey in the face of danger.
 - “Heavenly Father, throughout the history of Your church, you have called Your followers to obey You, even in life-threatening situations. We pray that we are counted as worthy to follow You, even if we face dangers, both seen and unseen.” I Samuel 16:1-4
5. Praying for a willingness to hear God and obey under His wisdom, not our own.
 - “Lord, grant us Your wisdom in all that we do in obedience to You. Help us to not rely on our own understanding but in Your perfect will and wisdom, trusting You fully.” I Samuel 16:7
